

MARKET VOICES

KARLA RAMOS

MARKET MANAGER. CHASS MERCADO

What makes CHASS Mercado special is the quality and variety of our vendors. You'll find fresh, seasonal fruits and vegetables, many grown locally, alongside ready-to-eat foods and unique handmade items. Our market is also a welcoming, family-friendly space where you'll find health and wellness programs, fun activities, and valuable community resources.

NICOLE MORBA

SR FOOD ACCESS MANAGER. EASTERN MARKET

Detroit Community Markets offer more than just great food – they're a chance to connect with your neighborhood. Each market has its own personality, with fresh local produce, unique products, and friendly, dedicated vendors. Some locations even include fun activities for all ages. No matter which market you visit, you're helping support local the food system and build a stronger community.

JULIA RICE

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR & MARKET MANAGER,
HOPE VILLAGE REVITALIZATION

When I think of the markets around the city collectively, Detroit Community Markets provides an avenue to elevate human connections, improve health and wellness, and create great memories. When you attend a Detroit Community Market location you are making a direct impact on that neighborhood.

WELCOME!

Detroit Community Markets are neighborhood locations where you can buy fresh, affordable, locally produced food. We strive to increase access to healthy foods, improve neighborhoods, support local growers and entrepreneurs, and create public spaces where residents can come together.

Various payment options accepted including SNAP and Double Up Food Bucks.
